FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Stone Soup 2011

GREELEY, March 7, 2011 -- Weld Food Bank will be holding its 9th Annual Stone Soup dinner and silent auction at 6:00PM on April 30, 2011 at the UNC Ballrooms in Greeley.

With the theme "The Magic Continues..." the food bank will be serving prime rib for dinner, which was donated by JBS USA. The Jurassicasters, a popular local band, will be providing the entertainment for the evening. The dinner will have complimentary beer and wine as well as a cash bar available, and there will be many incredible silent auction items for guest to bid on. Included this year will be a trip to Tucson, as well as various local Colorado destinations. All proceeds from the event will benefit Weld Food Bank's hunger relief programs throughout Weld County.

"Stone Soup is an excellent opportunity to bring our community together to fight hunger in Weld County," says Kevin Mullin, director of development for the food bank. "This is going to be an event that you will not want to miss."

To participate, contact Kasey Pennington at Weld Food Bank (970-356-2199 x307 / Kasey@weldfoodbank.org). Admission is $100 per person, and Corporate Tables are available for $800. More information is available at weldfoodbank.org.

Weld Food Bank. Weld Food Bank is a member of Feeding America and was founded in 1982. Weld Food Bank's mission is to lead and engage our community in the fight against hunger. We distributed 8.1 million pounds of food last fiscal year through our 115 nonprofit partner agencies and through four direct service programs which include Kids Cafe, The Backpack Program, Commodity Supplemental Food Program and Emergency Food Boxes. On average we serve over 10,000 Weld County residents each month. To learn more visit www.weldfoodbank.org.
